About Us

Years of experience, just a phone call away...

Nolan James is an experienced and forward-thinking firm of Chartered Accountants and Business Advisers based in Poynton, Cheshire.

Working closely with clients in the North West of England and beyond, our mission is to give a direct, meaningful and personal service to each of our clients.

Our approachable team will work with you to develop an understanding of your unique circumstances, and suggest strategies to help you to achieve your business and personal objectives.

Apart from the more general accountancy services, we can also assist you with business development and specialist tax services.

Our Philosophy

We're not like other accountants...

With the perfect blend of professionalism and approachability, we pride ourselves on our exceptional service and client care.

Our philosophy is always to do our utmost to:

- Provide a professional, courteous and efficient service
- Always exceed your expectations
- Listen to what you are saying
- Communicate with you quickly and fully
- Never surprise you with bills you're not expecting
- Be honest, truthful and upfront with you at all times
- Aim for you to pay the least amount of tax payable within the law
- Provide pro-active business advice wherever possible.

The Directors

You're in safe hands...

We are an owner managed business and our day-to-day operations are managed by our two directors, Karen Nolan and Ruth James. Whether you're looking to grow your business, minimise the tax bill or maximise your personal wealth, Karen and Ruth will go the extra mile to exceed your expectations and help you to achieve your goals.

Karen Nolan FCCA Director

Karen specialises in delivering advice to SMEs across a wide range of sectors. Over the years she has developed a wealth of experience and has a strong background in audit, accountancy and taxation. She believes in delivering a high level of business advice and customer service, and she always looks to exceed her clients' expectations.

Ruth James BSc (Hons) FCA Director

Ruth has gained extensive expertise within the profession, and specialises in acting for small and medium-sized companies in all aspects of audit, accountancy and taxation. Ruth believes in supporting her clients and encouraging them to achieve their full potential and meet their commercial and personal goals.
